

Quintet

Lee Bethel, Matt Bromhead, Christine Druitt Preston, Nicole Kelly & Kerry Toomey
Saturday 10 September to Sunday 13 November 2022

Quintet features a series of solo exhibitions by five contemporary southern Sydney artists. Each artist delves into the materiality of their practice, demonstrating curiosity and skill across a diverse range of practices, including painting, sculpture, ceramics, textiles, drawing, paper cuts and printmaking.

Drawing on a love of paper, Lee Bethel cuts and manipulates paper to create shadows and reflections that form complex patterns and lightscapes. Her work often examines the relationship between object, place and memory with works informed by specific sites and environments. In A Way With Words, Bethel explores women, feminism, and the domestic environment through a series of works that are aesthetically beautiful, female, pretty, domesticated and laboured. Yet, which on closer inspection reveal to viewers disturbing truths and attitudes that continue to permeate the treatment of women by society.

Matt Bromhead works with drawing and painting and creates static and kinetic sculptures. In his exhibition Screens, the artist combines elements of collage and intuitive mark-making to create lyrical compositions and forms. Each work, slowly built in layers of mulberry paper and rice glue, forms a final image that equally reveals the daily history of its construction.

Christine Druitt Preston predominantly works with printmaking, often combined with textiles and embroidery.

Interested in the patterns of the domestic – the familiar and the everyday – she has previously developed significant bodies of work focussing on domestic interiors and exterior gardens, including Rosebank in Mudgee and Margaret Olley's house.

For her exhibition, A stilled life, she has developed a new body of work that explores the original Hazelhurst cottage, the architecture, its history and the original owners, Ben and Hazel Broadhurst.

With a vibrant colour palette and swift brushwork, painter Nicole Kelly creates evocative works that create a sense of place. Often painted en plein air and featuring the landscapes of Provence, regional Australia or domestic interiors, her works convey the lingering memory and mood of the environment they depict. Her exhibition Solastalgia focuses on the aftermath of the 2019/2020 bushfires on the NSW south coast.

Kerry Toomey is a Gamilaroi woman who grew up in Pilliga, New South Wales. Toomey's sculptures, often of hats or shoes or other wearables, are interwoven with text, patterns and culturally significant items such as echidna quills and emu feathers.

Each item represents a connection to her family and culture and history and often connects to family members and their personal stories.

From the President

Dear Friends,
As we move into Spring, I am delighted to highlight some of our events for you to participate in. Our aim is to always present events that will stimulate your imagination, all in a friendly, creative environment.

Our planned coach trip to Bundanon will feature an architecture tour of the award-winning buildings The Bridge and Art Museum. You can choose to go by coach or join us there in your own car.

We are so honoured that the Friends have access to successful, talented artists at Hazelhurst. Our ART AFTER DARK event is planned when five local artists will be featured in the Quintet exhibition.

This event is exclusive to our Friends members and their guests. The opportunity to hear the artists speak and enjoy the social company of Friends.

Artist Leanne Thompson will present a talk and workshop using natural wetland fibres. Her sculpture Transit sits at the back entrance to Hazelhurst.

Why not consider bringing a friend to our artztalks, they start at 2.30pm, you could even enjoy lunch at Hazelhurst café first. We have several speakers who will stimulate and engage your imagination on their very researched topics.

At Friends, we also love to hear our members' successes with their art and craft. Recently we became aware Friend member Catherine Murphy has written and illustrated a children's book, Hazel goes to Hazelhurst. Catherine has dedicated her book to the volunteers at Hazelhurst.

When we viewed this delightful children's book, we decided our members should help Catherine celebrate the launching of her book. The launch will take place in the Hazelhurst Cottage on 8 October.

I am sure you will agree this program of events is exciting, and it is happening in your local area. If you know of anyone who would enjoy such a stimulating event program, please tell them about Friends of Hazelhurst.

I look forward to seeing you at Hazelhurst.

Directors Message

Dear Hazelhurst Friends,

We have been so heartened by the number of visitors that have returned to Hazelhurst over recent months, and their positive responses to our recent exhibitions Jess Johnson and Simon Ward: Terminus and Alison Clouston & Boyd: Delving & Branching. It has been a joy to witness people of all ages engaging with these unique exhibitions.

Spring is a wonderful time of year to visit Hazelhurst, the gardens are blooming, the café deck is the perfect place to catch up, and our Gallery program is full of inspiring exhibitions and events.

Our new exhibition Quintet brings together new works from five leading southern Sydney artists, Lee Bethel, Matt Bromhead, Christine Druitt Preston, Nicole Kelly and Kerry Toomey. Each artist has been connected to Hazelhurst over the years and it has been a privilege to witness their practices develop during this time.

We have some engaging public programs and activities planned for in association with Quintet. Join the artists in the gallery for our Art in Conversation event, expand your creative practice in our artist-led One Day Workshops, and engage with art as you never have before at our Gesture Tour.

Hazelhurst's much loved Made by Hand Art & Design Markets return on Sunday 9 October. An event not to be missed, these carefully curated markets will showcase handmade artisan items from over 50 artists and makers from the local area, and further afield.

Finally, we are excited that our Film Club has returned, next season presents a rich array of films to enjoy. If you are looking for quality films in the Shire, I highly recommend you join.

Looking forward to seeing you at Hazelhurst.

Meet The Teacher: Anney Bounpraseth

Anney Bounpraseth is an Australian-born artist of Laotian heritage whose practice is concerned with representing post-traumatic growth from religious trauma in contemporary art.

Her practice upcycles edenic symbolism into mixed media textile-based present paradises symbolising freedom, personal sanctuary, and creating a life of one's own. Anney has been developing and delivering recreational art programs since 2004 and teaches drawing and painting classes at Hazelhurst.

IN THE GALLERY SHOP

Lisa Stuart Jewellery

Lisa Stuart's earrings, brooches and pendants are available in the Hazelhurst Gallery Shop.

Over 19 years ago, Bundanoon artist Lisa Stuart saw a broken vase at a Canberra Market and thought, "Those pieces would look good with silver around them!"

Hence started a journey into smashing plates and how to do it properly. It began with large abstract shapes and an element of just random smashing with uncontrolled/controlled pieces. They were surrounded in solder and made into brooches, pendants and rings. Wearable art!

"There are so many beautiful plate patterns. To this day, I still discover more designs. I do try to make my jewellery from preloved broken china as I cannot break a plate that has managed to survive sometimes over 100 years."

Lisa is quite particular in what she breaks and what she looks for in a design or pattern, and loves working with china, whether it be Retro dinnerware, the popular blue and white Willow pattern or the beautiful Art Deco and antique dinnerware. Her china cornucopia is endless.

What started off 19 years ago as a whimsy idea has grown and become a passion for Lisa, and her studio is a testament to her love of all things china.

Book Launch

'Hazel Goes to Hazelhurst'

Saturday 8 October, 2pm to 4pm

Hazelhurst Cottage

Guest speaker Artist Alexander McKenzie

Author and illustrator Catherine Murphy will delight us in conversation about the process and inspiration behind her new illustrated children's book Hazel Goes to Hazelhurst. Dedicated to the volunteers at Hazelhurst, the book is about the discovery of art through a young child's eyes and their warm relationship with an adult as they explore the galleries and gardens together. It represents the pure essence of joy found in sharing art. Refreshments will be served.

Hazel Goes to Hazelhurst, written & illustrated by Catherine Murphy.

A Passion Shared:

Inside the Elliott Eyes Collection with Gordon Elliot

Saturday 17 September, 2.30pm, Hazelhurst Theatrette

Drawing from the experience he and Michael Eyes have gained in gathering over 400 outstanding artworks, Gordon Elliott will give us the inside story of private art collecting. Their collection, the Elliott Eyes Collection, is a private art collection that has taken 20 years to assemble. Its focus has, of course, changed over time, but its emphasis has always been on collecting selected artists in depth, across their career and their various media.
